

Nield will lead board of PVM

January 9, 2011

SOUTHFIELD - Presbyterian Villages of Michigan, with a location in Southfield, has announced the appointment of Martha Nield as chair of the Presbyterian Villages of Michigan Board of Directors. Elected by her peers, Nield will lead the volunteer board of directors, providing PVM with direction, advice and help set goals and objectives for the organization to carry out its mission of serving seniors of all faiths and creating new possibilities in quality senior living.

Nield, whose term as PVM chair began Jan. 1, holds a B.A. from the University of Michigan, a teaching certificate, Master Board Certification (Governance) from Michigan School Board Association and was also a Leadership Academy Facilitator for Teachers in Southeastern Michigan.

She is a former Northville school board member who was named Northville Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year in 2001 for her community work that spanned 25 years.

Presbyterian Villages of Michigan is headquartered in Southfield. It is a faith-based, nonprofit, multi-site system that has served seniors of all faiths since 1945.
