FROM THE DESK OF THE ADMINISTRATOR, CAROLYN MARTIN:

The hot dog days of Summer have been upon us. What would we talk about if it wasn't the weather? The weather is the safest subject. We live in a time when we are experiencing things in a way that is significant due to social media and multiple news media outlets bombarding us with opinions. I think what makes it different this time around is the internet and how rapid rumors, information and purposely planted misinformation spreads.

PVM has had to make hard decisions to keep our residents and staff healthy. Recently it was sent to us from our corporate office that vaccines will be mandatory for employment at all our Villages. We receive federal dollars in the Health Care Center and in order to receive payment for Medicare and Medicaid we have to have staff vaccinated per the new government policy. It was decided not only Health Care staff but all staff need to be vaccinated to protect the vulnerable population we serve. There will be some exclusions for medical conditions and religious beliefs. We have till mid-Sept. to comply with the new company policy.

Hope you had a chance to attend the Legend's performance. We enjoyed setting it up, decorating, and seeing all the happy Faces in attendance. Did you try one of the Seeburger's Cheeseburgers? I was told they were terrific. Next up Three Men and a Tenor. Make sure to get your reservations in. It is sure to be a sold out event.

A few of us were talking recently about how some people handle challenges with grace and understanding. Others handle conflict and challenging times with short tempers and are quick to get angry. We have all seen it. Getting angry at the grocery clerk, the fast food worker, waiter.... Over time some individuals become bitter, sharp tongued, and carry this bitterness with them into their daily lives. Somehow it makes the bitter individual feel better for a minute to see someone else suffer as they perceive themselves to be unfairly suffering. Bitter individuals look for someone to blame. We can pray for anyone suffering from bitterness and anger to find peace and comfort. Holding on to anger is bad for your health and your soul.

We also know people who are like a light of positive energy and wisdom regardless of their past or present. It makes many want to be in their company. Our staff talk of watching so many of you handle challenges, life changes, and health issues with grace. We admire your strength and your capacity to make the best of every day, regardless of what you are facing.

You may be helping take care of a spouse, yourself, or mourning the loss of a loved one. Watching you inspires our staff. However, you are not alone. It is okay to ask for help.

Please know we are here to help if you have questions or need assistance. Chaplain Laura can provide spiritual guidance and help you find resources.

MARKETING

As most of you already know, we have been busy with the new construction. Ribbon cuttings, open houses, tours, taking reservations for the new ranch homes and the mid-rise building. If you are interested in touring the new ranch model, please call sales and leasing. If you know someone who is interested in living at East Harbor, let them know about all the fun and exciting things that we do here and to set up an appointment soon. Keep in mind; we pay referral fees for your referral. Be sure to let them know to give your name as the person who referred them to East Harbor. Don't forget about our next open house on September 23 featuring Three Men and a Tenor.

SEPTEMBER

James 3:17 "But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere."

Sunday, September 12 is Grandparents Day. We celebrate and honor those from whom we received wisdom, peace, can comfort.

Grandma's house was always a peaceful place. Although Grandparents Day became recognized in 1978, every day we were together was a reason to celebrate. Grandma passed away the year we would have celebrated our first official Grandparents Day, but I am grateful for the times we had together and the wisdom she shared; especially her love and admiration of Jesus Christ. Grandma's home was always a place of serenity and peace. So, no matter how you celebrate, just know that you ARE significant and you do impact others. Happy Grandparents Day! Thank you for sharing your love, memories, and wisdom.

True "Wisdom" IS genuine, Pure and Beautiful!
